Did You Know?

DISC CLEANERS

Having trouble getting that DVD to play? If you can see nothing wrong with the disc, perhaps you need to clean your player. The library has cleaning discs that can be checked to help your player perform satisfactorily. Cleaning discs can be found at the head of the classic DVD section and check out for one week at no cost. Try one today and know even greater movie-watching happiness.

WE HAVE THE PERFECT GIFT: MOVIE RENTAL GIFT CARDS

For an easy, sure-to-please gift for just about anyone, consider purchasing a Movie Rental Gift Card from the library. Cards sell for $9 and are good for ten rentals of DVDs or Blu-Rays. That's ten for the price of nine: what a deal! The cards have no expiration date. They can't be used to pay overdue fines or replaced if lost. See a staff member at the Check-Out Desk for information.

YOU CAN BOOK A LIBRARIAN

We love it when you ask us challenging questions or ask for help in researching a complex topic or learning to use your new digital device. We'll always try to help you, but questions like these can require time and concentration. We'll do a better job with complicated questions if you call us in advance to make an appointment for an hour of undivided assistance. When you let us know what kind of help you need we can do some preliminary research and optimize the time available to help you. Just contact the reference desk to make an appointment.

Special Glencoe Appearance: Kevin Peraino, Author of Lincoln In The World

Wednesday, December 4, at 7:00 p.m.

Please join us in the Young Adult Room of the Glencoe Library for an appearance by author Kevin Peraino. As part of a national tour for his recently published book Lincoln in the World: The Making of a Statesman and the Dawn of American Power, Mr. Peraino will speak about his book and be available to sign copies.

Kevin Peraino is a veteran foreign correspondent who has reported from throughout the world. He spent a decade at Newsweek, most recently as a senior writer and bureau chief in the Middle East. He was a finalist for the Livingston Award for his foreign affairs reporting and was part of the team that won a National Magazine Award for its coverage of the 2004 presidential campaign. Mr. Peraino is a graduate of Northwestern University and a term member at the Council on Foreign Relations. Copies of Lincoln in the World will be available for purchase, courtesy of The Book Stall at Chestnut Court.

For those fascinated with the Civil War, the Glencoe Historical Society offers a program focusing on Glencoe veterans of the war on January 26.

Please see page 3 for details.

Of Special Interest ...

FRIED WALLEYE AND CHERRY PIE: GLENCOE FOOD WRITER PEGGY WOLFF

Thursday, December 5, at 7:30 p.m.

Peggy Wolff, editor of Fried Walleye and Cherry Pie: Midwestern Writers on Food (U. of Nebraska Press), will talk about the inspiration for this post-WWII regional food anthology, the genre called food/lit, some anecdotes about working with writers, and how she put together essays from notable authors who could see food beyond the printed recipe on the page.

Fried Walleye contributors include New York Times best-selling authors, Guggenheim fellows, TV comedy writers, National Book Award finalists, top food journalists, restaurateurs and chefs.

Elizabeth Berg recalls the comfort of her aunt's meatloaf. Peter Sagal ponders the ethics of pate. Robert Olmstead digresses into questions of Aztec culture while contemplating Cincinnati five-way chili. Michael Stern addresses himself to Chicago's Italian beef sandwich. Each essay adds something to our understanding of the experience of food, family, time and place.

WRITERS' OPEN MIC NIGHTS: POETRY AND PROSE AT THE GLENCOE LIBRARY

Wednesday, December 11, at 7:00 p.m.

Tuesday, January 14, at 7:00 p.m.

Wednesday, February 5, at 7:00 p.m.

Writers of all ages working in all forms and genres are invited to share their work at these community literary evenings. Bob Boone—writer, teacher, editor, director of Young Chicago Authors program and founder of the Glencoe Study Center—will be the moderator and will invite occasional special guest readers. If you want to read your work, please email Bob in advance at ycagsc@aol.com so he can coordinate the evening's roster. Everyone is welcome to participate by reading or just by being an appreciative audience for the many talented writers in our community.

ANOTHER ONE JUST LIKE THAT! WINTER READING CLUB FOR ADULTS

Saturday, January 11 – Saturday, March 1

Thanks to the Friends of the Glencoe Public Library for their generous support of our reading clubs.

In this Winter Reading Club we'd like to try to help you find that next great book, so we're focusing on readalikes—books that have enough in common that they may just satisfy the craving for "another one just like that!"

There will be a kickoff party on Saturday, January 11, from 9:00 a.m.–12:00 noon. As always there will be sign-up prizes, weekly prizes and prizes when you finish six books. If you can't be here on January 11th, sign up at the Readers' Services desk at your convenience or join by emailing radesk@glencoelibrary.org. If you'll be away for a while this winter, you can still participate by taking advantage of six-week vacation loans available on all but our newest books.

THE CIVIL WAR THROUGH THE EYES OF GLENCOE VETERANS

Sunday, January 26, at 2:00 p.m.

Come and learn about the Civil War through the writings and reminiscences of two prominent Glencoe residents: Charles H. Howard and Marcellus W. Darling. Both men served the entire war in many of the biggest battles — one as an officer and the other as an enlisted man. This entire program was written more than 150 years ago by these two men, who later became leaders of the Glencoe community. You don't want to miss their unique and moving perspective on the bloodiest conflict in American history. Presented by the Glencoe Historical Society.

CHICAGO'S MOVERS AND SHAKERS

Thursday, January 30, at 7:00 p.m. (Part 1)

Thursday, February 27, at 7:00 p.m. (Part 2)

Chicago's history is rife with characters whose quirks and foibles—and genuine accomplishments—are still legendary. Join historian and tour guide Hy Speck as he returns to the library for a lively, two-part presentation on the larger-than-life “movers and shakers” who made Chicago Chicago. He will fill you in on the exploits of The Colonel, Bertha, the Everleigh Sisters, and Hizzoner and give you the inside scoop on Mies van der Rohe and his romance with Dr. Edith Farnsworth; the assassination of Mayor Anton Cermak; the rise and fall of Chicago's first billionaire, Samuel Insull; America's favorite bank robber, John Dillinger; and Sally Rand, whose famous fan dance shocked and delighted our “toddlin' town.”

TECH TALK: PARENT WORKSHOP SERIES

Tuesdays at 7:00 p.m., January 28–February 18

Join us for a four-week series of evening workshops designed for parents and caregivers about in-demand technology topics. We will welcome speakers from the Erikson Institute, the Chicago Play Project, Glencoe Public Safety, and the library. For more information about these programs, please see page 7.

COLLEGE ON THE HORIZON: WHAT 8TH–11TH GRADERS NEED TO KNOW

Wednesday, February 12, at 7:30 p.m.

Long before you fill out actual college applications, you lay the groundwork for what your applications can contain. Sandra Gilbert and Pat Cannon of Ravinia College Consulting will present a program for students looking to take a strategic, long view of the admissions process. Subjects covered will include the importance of knowing one's strengths and weaknesses, academic balance, and the extra-curricular activities, work and/or family obligations that demonstrate commitment and leadership. Year-by-year suggestions for the best way to prepare for college, what colleges are looking for, and examples of pitfalls to avoid will be included. Students and parents are welcome!

TECHNOLOGY TUESDAYS

Another holiday season means a new round of fun, useful and crazy new gadgets for us to drool over! Come to our Holiday Spectacular on December 10, when we will take a look at some of the hottest new tech toys around. Our Holiday Spectacular is always an especially unique and fun event! Next, it's a new year so why not take advantage of everything that the Internet has to offer and Change Your Life Online? On January 21, you can ensure that your New Year's resolutions are successful by learning the best sites to help you get organized, healthy, smart, rich and more! Finally, we all love showing off our favorite apps for our smartphones and tablets. Come to App-a-palooza on February 18, where we will present the apps that we enjoy most for our mobile devices. There are more apps than we can possibly keep track of, so be sure to bring your favorite suggestions as well!

Technology Tuesdays is open to all ages and skills, although a basic knowledge of computers (how to use a mouse and keyboard, how to get on the Internet) is required. Each class is taught by Mike Gershbein and will last one hour.

HOLIDAY SPECTACULAR

Tuesday, December 10, at 1:00 p.m.

CHANGE YOUR LIFE ONLINE

Tuesday, January 21, at 1:00 p.m.

APP-A-PALOOZA

Tuesday, February 18, at 1:00 p.m.

Theater & Film

AMERICA'S MUSICAL THEATER LEGENDS

Susan Benjamin presents three programs in this very popular series featuring the lives and unforgettable work of the composers, lyricists, and performers who shaped American musical theatre in the 20th century.

Monday, December 9, at 1:00 p.m.

Jule Styne

Monday, January 13, at 1:00 p.m.

Tony Bennett

Monday, February 10, at 1:00 p.m.

Danny Kaye

TALKING PICTURES

Thanks to the Friends of the Glencoe Public Library for their generous support of our film discussion programs.

Enjoy an afternoon of thought-provoking cinema and discussion with Susan Benjamin. The film showing starts promptly at 1:00 p.m. in the library's Hammond Room and will be followed immediately by a discussion. There will be no February program, but Talking Pictures will return on Monday, March 3.

Wednesday, December 4, at 1:00 p.m.

Love, Actually

Thursday, January 16, at 1:00 p.m.

Flight

Monday, March 3, at 1:00 p.m.

Bee Season

Monday Night at the Movies

Sponsored by the Friends of the Glencoe Public Library.

All films in this series are screened at the Glencoe Woman's Club, 325 Tudor Court.

THIS IS MARTIN BONNER

Monday, December 16, at 1:00 & 7:00 p.m.

A quiet film about new beginnings, This Is Martin Bonner follows its title character in Reno, Nevada, where he has relocated to start a new life as a counselor for newly released prisoners. The professional relationship with one such parolee develops into an unlikely friendship. "This Is Martin Bonner explores what it means to be a good person at a crossroads, and whom you might find there." — Michael Phillips, Chicago Tribune.

83 minutes. Rated R.

TWENTY FEET FROM STARDOM

Monday, January 20, at 1:00 & 7:00 p.m.

Even if the names of singers Merry Clayton, Claudia Lenear, Lisa Fischer and Darlene Love are not familiar to you, their voices probably are. Twenty Feet from Stardom chronicles some of the unsung heroines of American popular music over the last 50 years and the perils of trying making the transition from backup singer to star. Long-time music luminaries like Mick Jagger, Bruce Springsteen, Bette Midler and David Bowie attest to the irreplaceable contribution of these often overlooked artists.

89 minutes. Rated PG-13

THE SPECTACULAR NOW

Monday, February 17, at 1:00 & 7:00 p.m.

The Spectacular Now is fresh and touching coming of age film that is a showcase for two talented young actors, Miles Teller (Rabbit Hole) and Shailene Woodley (The Descendants). "A clear-eyed, disarmingly tender teenage romance that bears comparison with the best of its genre, both old and new." — Ty Burr, Boston Globe.

95 minutes. Rated R.

THE DETROIT INSTITUTE OF ART: A WORLD-CLASS COLLECTION WITH AN UNCERTAIN FUTURE

Thursday, February 6, at 7:00 p.m.

The recent bankruptcy of the city of Detroit has put the art holdings of its great museum in a precarious position. Learn about the situation in detail and view highlights of this great museum's collection with art historian Jeff Mishur.

Just for Young Adults

WHAT'S COOL FOR WINTER: YA WINTER READING CLUB

Wednesday, December 18–Monday, February 17

6th–12th grades

Whether you're traveling for Winter Break or staying home, we're sure you'll want to catch up on your reading. Our YA Winter Reading Club has lots of goodies to reward you, like a chance to enter the drawing for a Books on Vernon gift certificate when you sign up, plus free DVD rental coupons for each book you read! You set your own goal for the number of books you think you can read during the program. If you reach your goal by February 17, you get a free paperback book of your own choosing. There will be suggestions to get you started but read whatever looks good to you. Happy reading!

TEEN ADVISORY BOARD

Monday, December 9, at 7:30 p.m.

6th–12th grades

It's not too late to join our Teen Advisory Board (TAB), the creative and dynamic group responsible for PJs and Popcorn night and the scavenger hunt idea (see below). Join us and share your opinions about what teen programs you'd like to see at the library. As an extra incentive, food is served at all teen events!

TEEN SCAVENGER HUNT

Saturday, January 4, between 10:00 a.m.–3:30 p.m.

6th–12th grades

Test your book, movie and music knowledge at our first-ever teen scavenger hunt. Find clues scattered throughout the library that will lead you to great prizes, including free books, DVD rental coupons, snacks and a gift certificate to Books on Vernon. Stop by the Readers' Services desk between 10:00 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. to get started. Happy hunting!

YA STUDY BREAK LOUNGE IS BACK

Saturday, January 18–Wednesday, January 22

Looking to take a break while studying for finals? Study Break Lounge is the perfect place for free snacks and a little socializing. Lounge hours are 9:30 a.m.–4:30 p.m. on Saturday, January 18; 1:30–4:30 p.m. on Sunday, January 19; and 9:30 a.m.–8:30 p.m. on Monday, January 20, through Wednesday, January 22. Keep your stress level down and have fun at the same time. Good luck with finals!

YA WINTER READING CLUB WRAP-UP PIZZA PARTY

Monday, February 17 (time to be announced)

6th–12th grades

If you participated in the Winter Reading Club (or even if you didn't), take advantage of this opportunity to talk with other teens about the books you read. It's a great way to swap ideas. No school today, so stop in to share books and pizza with friends.

COLLEGE ON THE HORIZON: WHAT 8TH–11TH GRADERS NEED TO KNOW

Wednesday, February 12, at 7:30 p.m.

See page 3 for information. For students and parents.

Friends' Corner

Contact the Friends via email at friends@glencoelibrary.org or visit them at www.glencoepubliclibrary.org/friends.htm

SPRING USED BOOK SALE IS MARCH 1–3

Our fall book sale was our most successful sale since 2007, yielding $8,608! All of the proceeds will, as always, be used to support the library. Thank you to our generous donors and enthusiastic shoppers. The next sale will be March 1–3. Members of the Friends may shop the evening of February 28.

FALL CONCERT

Our November 17 classical music concert featured the Guadagnini Quartet. Musicians David Taylor, Cornelius Chiu, Charles Pikler, and Gary Stucka played an especially lovely program. We love being able to present free concerts by such distinguished performers.

BOOK DONATIONS WELCOME

When you're sorting through your shelves of books, music, and movies, keep the Friends in mind. We gratefully accept donations of paperback and hardcover books, DVDs, audiobooks, and CDs. (Please note that we cannot accept VHS tapes, music cassette tapes, textbooks, encyclopedia, magazines, or books that are highlighted, written in, mildewed, or water-damaged.) Place your donations in the bins just inside the library's front door. A tax receipt for your donations is available at the Check-Out Desk. All book sale profits benefit the library.

WE ARE THE FRIENDS OF TREES, TOO

To conserve paper and postage, the Friends are relying on the Internet for more of our communications. We now send concert invitations and Friday night preview tickets (for book sales) by email. If we don't have your email address, please email the Friends at friends@glencoelibrary.org. Be sure to include your name and street address.
