Did You Know?

FINES FOR FOOD RETURNS

Pay your overdue fines during the month of October and you can do twice the good. All fine money collected during October will be donated to local food pantries.

WANT TO LEARN A LANGUAGE?

Pronunciator, the library's new online language-learning course, can help you tackle a new language or brush up your existing skills. Choose from over 80 languages and use your computer or mobile device to learn at your own pace. To access Pronunciator, go to the library's website and look under Digital Content/Glencoe Academy.

LIBRARY ON WHEELS!

At a professional conference this summer, a lucky library staffer won a cargo tricycle that you'll soon see rolling through the village. Strong-legged librarians will use it to sign up new cardholders, check out a selection of books, demonstrate cool stuff, and more! We've nicknamed it "The Hopper." Thanks to all who contributed their ideas in our naming contest.

Donations to the Library

The library deeply appreciates donations made in honor of a loved one or special event.

Donations were recently received from:

- Deborah Kaplan
- The Friends of the Glencoe Public Library in memory of Natalie Ruth Berez

Author Event: Sportscaster David Kaplan

Thursday, September 28, at 7:30 p.m.

In 2011, Theo Epstein became the new Chicago Cubs president of baseball operations, flipping the switch on the lovable loser franchise and initiating a plan to accomplish in Chicago what he'd succeeded in as general manager of the Boston Red Sox: ending a World Series drought.

In The Plan: Epstein, Maddon, and the Audacious Blueprint for a Cubs Dynasty (Triumph Books, May 2017), David Kaplan of CSN Chicago and ESPN Radio goes behind the scenes with the Cubs and their front office, walking the steps of their captivating rise to becoming 2016 World Series champions. Featuring exclusive interviews with Epstein, owner Tom Ricketts, and other team insiders, this is the definitive account of a new era on the North Side.

A fixture of the Chicago sports scene since 1995, the Emmy-Award winning Mr. Kaplan hosts a daily tv show ("Sports Talk Live") and a daily radio show ("Kap and Co."). He also is the pre- and post-game host for CSN's Chicago Cubs broadcasts. He will speak, field questions, and sign books. Copies of The Plan will be available for sale at the event from The Book Stall.

DINING OUT IN CHICAGO: A BREEZY HISTORY

Thursday, November 2, at 7:00 p.m.

Do you remember Army and Lou's? What about the late, great Como Inn? Over the last 170-odd years, Chicagoans have dined out in myriad settings to tuck into a range of repasts. Chicago historian and urbanologist Max Grinnell will lead you on a tour-du-table, from Beaubien's Tavern to tasting menus, utilizing rare photographs and visual ephemera. Mr. Grinnell teaches urban studies at the University of Chicago and the Massachusetts College of Art and Design. He's the author of three books on Chicago, including Frommer's 24 Great Walks in Chicago.

The Blackhawk Restaurant on Wabash, Chicago.

Fall Programs

BIG BOOKS: MOBY-DICK

Mondays at 7:00 p.m., September 18–November 13

A complex sea-monster of a book, Moby-Dick by Herman Melville is a rewarding literary experience. This American classic is the library's second selection for its Big Books series of guided discussions around daunting but worthy works. Leading the class will be Stephen Hall, whose deep background in philosophy and theology has informed his 25 years as an instructor in the Basic Program at the Graham School for Continuing Studies at the University of Chicago. Registration is required and space is limited. Glencoe residents have priority if the class fills up. Sponsored by the Friends.

BOOKNEWS

Monday, September 25, at 10:00 a.m.

Join us at the library for a discussion of new and upcoming fiction and nonfiction. Bagels and beverages will start at 10:00 a.m. and the presentation will start promptly at 10:30 a.m.

THE MAN BOOKER PRIZE SHORTLIST

Wednesday, September 27, at 7:30 p.m.

One of the world's premier literary awards, the Man Booker Prize is awarded annually to a novel written in English. The suspense builds as the longlist is announced in the summer and the shortlist (usually six novels) is released in mid September. This year's winner will be announced October 17. Join Richard Reeder, a literature instructor at the Oakton College Emeritus program, for an overview of the shortlist selections.

PARENTING WITH CONVICTION

Tuesday, October 3, at 7:30 p.m. — Raising Spiritually Aware Children

Tuesday, November 14, at 7:30 p.m. — Raising Socially Conscious Children

Parenting is a gift, a profoundly challenging gift in our world of choices at every turn. So many of us wonder how best to parent our values and how to raise grateful, socially responsible children. Join us for community conversations that will provide developmentally appropriate, practical ideas for parents to increase the awe, appreciation and awareness of our children and our families. These nondenominational conversations will be facilitated by Reverend Daphne Cody (St. Elisabeth's Episcopal Church), Rabbi Lisa Greene (North Shore Congregation Israel), and Kathy Livingston, LCSW (Family Service of Glencoe).

AUTHOR EVENT: DANIEL ROSENBERG

Wednesday, October 4, at 7:30 p.m.

The 2017 winner of the Soon To Be Famous Illinois Authors Project endured plenty of rejection before a statewide contest for self-published fiction validated his work. Daniel Rosenberg will read from his book, discuss tips for self-publishing success, and answer questions. A journalist who writes about financial markets, Mr. Rosenberg resides in Highland Park. Copies of his book, an alternative-history novel titled The Towers Still Stand, will be available for purchase and signing at the event.

FIRST FRIDAY KNITTERS

Friday, October 6, 9:30–11:00 a.m. (with inspiring projects)

Friday, November 3, 9:30–11:00 a.m.

Dig out your needles and yarn and join us by the fireplace in the Johnson Room for a morning of knitting. Teresa Grosch, an experienced knitter, will be on hand to help. Donated yarn courtesy of Three Bags Full of Northbrook will be available, but you'll need to bring your own needles. Special for October 6: Three Bags Full will bring sample projects made by store staff and customers.

FROM PAGE TO STAGE: DON QUIXOTE

Thursday, October 12, at 7:30 p.m.

Writers Theatre will stage the U.S. premiere of Quixote: On the Conquest of Self September 27–December 17. Enrich your experience of it with Claudia Traudt, who returns to the library to trace the background and overall arc of the Cervantes classic upon which the play is based. If you're not attending the play, you'll still enjoy her analysis of this unforgettable novel, from Quixote's tilting at the windmill to his lanky, frail self and nag Rocinante to his portly, wry sidekick Sancho Panza. Ms. Traudt teaches at Columbia College Chicago and for the University of Chicago's Basic Program.

MEDICARE

Tuesday, October 17, at 7:00 p.m.

Open enrollment for Medicare is October 15–December 7. This is the time to compare plans and make sure you have the health and prescription drug coverage that best meets your needs. Presenter Kathy Gaeding, a certified senior health insurance program counselor with CJE SeniorLife, will discuss 2018 changes, give tips on avoiding common mistakes, and answer your questions. Cosponsored with the Glencoe Park District. This program will be repeated on Thursday, October 19, at 10:00 a.m. at the Takiff Center.

WRITERS' OPEN MIC NIGHT

Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m., September 13, October 11, and November 8

Writers of any age working in all forms and genres are invited to share their work at these community literary evenings. If you want to read your work, please email the moderator, Bob Boone, in advance at ycagsc@gmail.com so he can coordinate the evening's roster. Everyone is welcome to participate by reading or just by being an appreciative audience for the many talented writers in our community.

Technology Programs

TECHNOLOGY TUESDAYS

September will bring us an updated version of iOS for iPhone and iPad. While there are lots of new features and capabilities, there are also some confusing changes. Whether you've already upgraded your device or you'd just like a preview, iPhone and iPad users will want to come to our September 19 Meet iOS 11 class. We'll also talk about new iPhones, iPads, and other Apple products that you'll be shopping for before the holidays. We know this will be a very popular topic, so we'll be repeating it the evening of October 17. Finally, if you would like to learn about the hot tech toys for the gift-giving season, make sure to come to our Holiday Technology Gifts class on November 21.

Technology Tuesdays is open to all ages and skills, although a basic knowledge of computers (how to use a mouse and keyboard, how to get on the Internet) is required. Each class is taught by Mike Gershbein and will last 90 minutes. Sponsored by the Friends.

Tuesday, September 19, at 1:00 p.m.

Meet iOS 11

Tuesday, October 17, at 7:00 p.m.

Meet iOS 11 (new time!)

Tuesday, November 21, at 1:00 p.m.

Monday Night at the Movies

Sponsored by the Friends.

AFTER THE STORM

Monday, September 18, at 1:00 and 7:00 p.m.

Those who enjoyed Our Little Sister earlier this year should find this latest drama from Japanese director Hirokazu Kore-eda equally rewarding. A private detective who spends most of his money gambling tries to reconnect with his estranged family and young son. "I've admired Mr. Kore-eda's work for many years... His latest film, though, has a special warmth and grace." — Joe Morgenstern, The Wall Street Journal.

117 minutes. Not rated.

KEDI

Monday, October 16, at 1:00 and 7:00 p.m.

A seemingly simple story about the legions of cats that have roamed Istanbul for thousands of years turns out to be a reverie on life and the relationship between human beings and the animals with whom they share space. "A cat's-eye view of the world that showcases both the warm-hearted people of this ancient Turkish city and the seamless integration of its felines into everyday life." — Kathryn Laskaris, Toronto Star.

79 minutes. Not rated.

DAWSON CITY: FROZEN TIME

Monday, November 20, at 1:00 and 7:00 p.m.

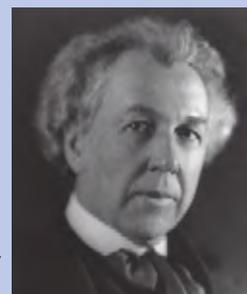

In 1978, a man clearing a vacant lot in the Canadian city of Dawson made an amazing discovery. Buried in the earth were hundreds of reels, many of them containing films long considered lost. It's a great tale itself, but filmmaker Bill Morrison has many more stories to tell in Dawson City: Frozen Time. "The thrilling documentary Dawson City: Frozen Time is indescribable not because it's ambiguous (it's totally straightforward) but because it does so many things so beautifully it is hard to know where to begin." — Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times.

120 minutes. Not rated.

FRANK LLOYD WRIGHT AT 150: AN ARCHITECTURAL LEGACY

Thursday, September 7, at 7:00 p.m.

Timeless and even modern as his buildings continue to appear, 2017 marks the 150th anniversary of Frank Lloyd Wright's birth. Art historian Jeff Mishur returns for a slide lecture on the great architect's life and work, focusing on sites in the Midwest and elsewhere.

Just for Young Adults

EMILY FOGLE

Born in Oregon and raised in the suburbs of Kansas City, Kansas, I studied creative writing at the Pratt Institute in Brooklyn, received my degree in May 2015, and decided to become a librarian. After graduating with my MSLIS from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in August 2016, I started working at the Glencoe library as a children's librarian. I currently live in Chicago with my dog, Buddy, who has been my best friend for 16 years. This is my first real library job, and I'm so glad to find myself in a community as welcoming and supportive as Glencoe!

I work with the teen and tween volunteers and run the Anime Club and other tween programs. I'm also in charge of the pets and paranormal nonfiction sections, as well as graphic novels, junior high fiction, and older elementary fiction. I read voraciously. Although many of my favorite books are children's books, when I'm looking for books for myself I can often be found in the young adult or science fiction sections.

When I'm not reading or petting my dog, I might be playing video games, watching Netflix, crocheting finger puppets, drawing T-Rexes and sharks, making up silly songs about my dog, or very occasionally writing stories. Please come upstairs to say hi!

Friends' Corner

Contact the Friends via email at friends@glencoe图书馆.org or visit us at www.glencoe图书馆.org/about/friends-of-gpl. Please note that we send all information about the concerts and book sales by email. If you'd like to be notified about the concerts and book sales, please provide your email address. Our email database is separate from the library's database. If the library has your email address, that does not mean the Friends have it!

BOOK SALE IS OCTOBER 21–23

The fall used book sale is coming up. We'll have thousands of respectfully used books, DVDs, CDs, and more at great prices. Members of the Friends (yes, you may join at the door) are invited to the members' preview sale on Friday, October 20, 6:00–8:00 p.m. Membership is available to current residents of Glencoe who donate to the Friends. Regular sale hours are Saturday, October 21, 9:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m.; Sunday, October 22, 12:00 noon–5:00 p.m. (everything half price); and Monday, October 23, 9:00 a.m.–12:00 noon ($3/bag sale). We've got lots of ART BOOKS this time — come on down and scoop up some bargains!

CLASSICAL MUSIC CONCERT

Continuing its tradition of lovely afternoon concerts, the Friends will host a performance by the Guadagnini String Quartet on Sunday, November 12, at 5:00 p.m. The musicians will be David Taylor, violin; Cornelius Chiu, violin; Weijing Wang, viola; and Gary Stucka, cello. The program for this free, one-hour concert will be announced later this fall. The library will close at 4:00 p.m. and reopen at 4:30 p.m. for concert seating.

LATEST GIFTS TO THE LIBRARY

In May, the Friends voted to support the Big Books discussion series for fall 2017; a folding cart; Talking Pictures film discussions; American Musical Theater Legends programs; additions to the library's Criterion Collection of DVDs; children's summer reading club supplies; StoryWalks; Curtain Call Club; Imagination Playground; Lego Brickology Party; a mobile data plan; and refinishing a wood table.
