From Retiring Executive Director Peggy Hamil

Serving in the position of Executive Director of the Glencoe Public Library has provided me extraordinary opportunities, both professionally and personally. It has been a privilege to work in a community that values its library so highly and a pleasure to come to know many of the generous and supportive people who live here.

The past eighteen-plus years at the Glencoe Public Library have been the most rewarding of my professional life and a wonderful way to spend the last half of my career. During this time, library resources have changed dramatically through automation, but friendly, professional, personalized service remains our hallmark. After 103 years, the Glencoe Public Library continues its role as an important center of community life.

I am indebted to the library trustees and staff with whom I have worked for their support and enthusiasm for the library service we provide. Each of you has also contributed to the success of our library and I appreciate your allowing me to become a part of the wonderful Glencoe community. I am confident that you will welcome Juli Janovicz and help her to continue the development of the Glencoe Public Library.

Peggy Hamil,
Executive Director
December 1994 – June 2013

Join us on Friday, June 7th, as we begin our summer reading program. Our theme this year will feature booklists from authors "Then and Now." Speculative Fiction will be included under "Visions of the Future." Lists of all kinds will abound—sure to please everyone.

You may also sign up by email (radesk@glencoepubliclibrary.org), but remember to stop by the Readers' Services desk to pick up your prize. After reading six books, the official program prize is yours. Remember to enter our drawings for weekly prizes. ## Library Staff News

TRUSTEE TRANSITION TIME

Every two years, the library must say goodbye to retiring trustees and welcome new ones. This April, Glencoe residents elected three new trustees to succeed John Tuohy, who has provided outstanding service in planning and facilities during his nine years on the Library Board; Barbara Breakstone, who served three terms as Library Board president during her eight-year tenure; and Stephanie Pearce, who helped to enhance the library's marketing plan while serving her four-year term. We are glad to have Joel Shoolin returning to the Library Board after having been off for a couple of years. Dr. Shoolin combines technology expertise with his practice as a physician. Kathy Doyle brings her own professional librarian experience to the Board, having started her career as a school librarian. She now manages her own marketing research firm. Michelle Gooze-Miller grew up in Glencoe and is now raising her own family here while practicing as an attorney.
